Military Correspondents Say Nothing of Jap Disaster

RUMOR THAT PORT ARTHUR HAS FALLEN

Details of the Advance of Gen. Oku's Army in Manchuria

ANOTHER FORT GONE.

Chefoo, July 14th.—A Frenchman arrived here in a junk from Port Arthur yesterday reports that on July 11th the Japanese captured fort No. 12.

ASKED OFF THE LIST.

St. Petersburg, July 14th.—There is some anxiety here regarding the report that the cruiser Askold has been damaged and it is noted that she was not mentioned in the list of warships constituting the squadron on its last appearance.

DETAILS OF OKU'S ADVANCE.

Tokio, July 14th.—The Japanese Taku Chan army is moving northwest from Suifu. It fought a series of battles with the Russians on July 9th and 10th. The army is divided into two columns which advanced against the Russians. When the first column approached Chi Kulan Ching the Russians retreated southwest through the valley at 5 o'clock in the evening and took up a position on the heights west of Chi Chang. The Russians were dislodged at dusk. When the second Japanese column advanced along the road toward Tong Chia repulsing small bodies of the enemy en route, they attacked the advance line of the Russians near Su Tan Laku. The Russians were reinforced and compelled the Japanese to withdraw. At dawn on July 10th, both columns attacked and dislodged the Russians from the heights of Sing Chou Ku. The Japanese rushed them and again attacked a strong position held by the Russians at Seutehku. After a desperate fight the Japanese occupied the position. After occupying Ba Chou, General Oku's army on Sunday moved northward. The Russians have strong defenses at Tapingchan, Nusenhan, Nangmata, Ching Hahan and their camps near Kio Chialah. Oku will probably attack these positions as soon as his troops are rested. In the fights of July 8th and 9th the Japanese lost 150 men. The Russian losses are believed to have been heavier than the Japanese.

PORT ARTHUR'S POSITION CRITICAL.

Paris, July 14th.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Petit Parisien says that the position of Port Arthur is considered in St. Petersburg to be most critical. Despite the optimism expressed in official circles the fall of the fortress is believed to be a matter of days only.

SENSATIONAL REPORTS NOT CONFIRMED.

London, July 14.—Special dispatches from correspondents at the seat of war published in this morning's London newspapers do not give any confirmation of the sensational reports of Japanese losses at Port Arthur. The Tokio correspondent of the Daily Telegraph sends official dispatches giving the loss of the Taku Chan army up to July 11, on which date the heights south of Sekinaiyu were stormed and taken after a stubborn resistance. The Russians, the dispatches say, have retired from Senkiasai, where they had strongly fortified positions. There is published this morning a rumor that Port Arthur had fallen, but it is discredited and lacks confirmation of any sort.

BATTLE NOW IN PROGRESS.

Chefoo, July 14.—8 a.m.—Private advices just received from New Chunging indicate that the long expected battle between Kai Chou and Ta Tehe Kaiyu is in progress.

A BLOODY SKIRMISH.

At the front with General Kuroki's force, July 12th, via Seoul, Korea, July 13.—The brief and disastrous attempt of the Russians to overwhelm the small Japanese force which guarded the entrance to the Motien pass was a bloody affair. The Japanese forces again exhibited their resourcefulness and courage, and the Russians again threw away many lives. The losses cannot be ascertained until the battlefield has been searched. The Japanese are still driving the enemy up the valley. The correspondent of the Associated Press saw enough to justify the estimate that the Russians had more than two hundred men killed and wounded, and that the Japanese casualties probably amount to sixty. Then the Russians left thirty dead in front of and in the trenches where the attack began. At this point they had an equal number of men severely wounded, and the Japanese took several prisoners and captured one hundred rifles.

THE "FOREIGNER" CAMPAIGN

It is scarcely to be believed that in a country such as Canada—of intelligence, of fair play, and of liberality of thought, as well as of liberty—a campaign such as that now being carried on by the Montreal Star, the Toronto Mail, the Ottawa Citizen, and numerous lesser lights of the Conservative party, on the misuse by Sir Wilfrid Laurier of the word "foreigner" when speaking of the Dundonald case in Parliament, should receive even a limited measure of encouragement from reputable people in the hope of ultimate party profit. That such a campaign is being urged the columns of the papers mentioned give evidence from day to day and from week end to week end, the public, so far as it can be influenced by them, is being led to believe that the Premier in his place in Parliament spoke of Lord Dundonald as an alien to Canada, using the words "foreigner" and "stranger" to express that idea. Not only is the attempt being repeatedly and persistently made in these papers, by expressing and impressing this idea, to arouse racial prejudice against the Premier in the minds of the large English speaking majority of the people of Canada, but the special effort is made to arouse a special prejudice in the minds of the people of Scottish descent because of the alleged lack of courtesy, shown by the Premier to their fellow Scotshman Lord Dundonald in his use of those words. Other issues—the important issues in the case—neglect of the militia, the dismissal of the general, and political interference—are dropped out of sight, and every effort that malice and falsehood can suggest is concentrated on the attempt to arouse racial prejudice to such a height as may affect the result of the general election favorably to the present party of the Opposition and without regard to ultimate consequences.

A more discreditable political campaign was never engaged in by any political party in any country. A campaign whose parallel in Canadian history is that of 1896, when the same party then in power, sold to the hierarchy of the province of Quebec the rights of the people of Manitoba for a continuance of their lease of office. Fortunately the parties to the bargain were unable to deliver the goods; and the reason they were unable to deliver them was because the present Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, then leader of the opposition, stood then as now and always for constitutional right and local self government, and risked his political life in support of those principles. If the English speaking province of Manitoba to-day enjoys the right to the school system of its own choosing it is in spite of the most extreme efforts of the Conservative party and because of the patriotic and high minded liberalism of the present Premier and his French Canadian liberal followers from the province of Quebec. This is only history, but it is true history and it is not old. At a time when much determined, persistent and unprincipled attempts are being made to arouse racial prejudice against the Premier in the minds of the English speaking majority of Canada, it is not inopportune to call to mind how much an important section of that majority, and incidentally the whole Dominion, owes to the fact that at a time when the Conservative party was trying to arouse and use the racial and religious prejudice of French Canadians by offering to force upon the people of Manitoba a school system which they did not desire, the attempt utterly because the present Premier, against whom it is now attempted to arouse English and Scotch racial prejudice, rose above those considerations and stood by principle instead of being led by prejudice. It is too bad that the English speaking people of Canada should be belittled in the eye of the world, and lose their own self respect by these frantic efforts of the Opposition for the second time, to secure power by a campaign of racial prejudice.

That much, if all that is alleged or insinuated regarding the use of the words "foreigner" and "stranger" were true. But what is to be said when there is no foundation in any degree by fact or inference for any part of the allegation that the words used or intended to be used in the sense of suggesting Lord Dundonald's relationship or lack of relationship to Canada. The Premier in the whole course of his remarks spoke only in the most courteous terms of Lord Dundonald. The use of the words was solely in connection with Lord Dundonald's acquaintance with the Eastern Townships and had no bearing and could not be construed to have any bearing on his connection with Canada. Sir Wilfrid was explaining Hon. Mr. Fisher's connection with the change in the list of officers in the Sweetburg squadron, and said that as Lord Dundonald was a stranger in that part of the province he had to depend on the information of others as to recommendations and the fitness of the parties recommended. Nothing could be plainer, less offensive or more indisputable, and it is upon this use of the word "stranger" that the campaign is based. The use of the word "foreigner" occurred by a mistake in rendering in English the French word "stranger" which is equivalent to the words "foreigner" and "stranger" in English. The Premier used the word "foreigner" but corrected it for "stranger." In the connection in which it was used the word "foreigner" would have sufficiently expressed the desired idea without offence in any degree, but it was not absolutely correct. The Premier corrected it at once and before attention was drawn to it, as Hansard shows. In order that there may be no misunderstanding as to the villainous misrepresentation that is being made of the Premier's utterance in this connection the Hansard report of his remarks, with interruptions, is here-with given in full. And it may be mentioned that there is no difference between the revised and unrevise issues:

Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The occasion of this debate, Mr. Speaker, is the unfortunate—I shall not characterize it today by any other term—speech which was delivered some few days ago by Lord Dundonald at a banquet. After the explanations we have had from my hon. colleagues, the Minister of Agriculture (Mr. Fisher) and Militia (Sir Frederick Borden), and also on behalf of Lord Dundonald by my hon. friend from North Victoria (Mr. Sam Hughes), I think it preferable at this moment not to push further a discussion of the consequences which may flow from Lord Dundonald's remarks. Not that I should have any hesitation in my own mind, or that there should be any hesitation in the mind of anybody, but it is preferable, in a matter of this gravity, that we should proceed with prudence and deliberation. Having said that much regarding the speech of Lord Dundonald, I may be permitted to say a word of his methods in organizing the militia. In so far as they are revealed by the incidents which have taken place in connection with the organization of the 13th Light Scottish Dragoons Lord Dundonald is certainly—I am willing to give him every credit in that respect—endowed with good mo-

THE WILY CHINK

ACCUSED OF GAMBLING

The Owner of a Laundry Charged in Police Court as the Head of a Fan-Tan Game

At the fire hall last evening, Police Magistrate Cowan continued the investigation into the charges brought by Chief Dean against the Queen's avenue Chinese laundry man of running a gaming house. Mr. Newell appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Wallbridge for the defence.

Besides the witnesses and the other Celestials who are to appear to answer charges of being frequenters of the house, there was a goodly company of spectators of the same race and tongue, drawn there apparently by the kindred spirit which in strangers in a foreign land makes that trouble of one the burden of all. They were present of all ages, sizes, shapes of color and styles of dress from little Kim Wah, who could spell his name in English, to a wrinkled venerable who regarded alone the hoary language of Confucius. In the limited space of the hall they lined up from the cell doors to the stove—a solid phalanx of wondering, silent, sympathetic spectators.

The accused is a remarkably active and intelligent looking young chap with a good working knowledge of English and his large dark eyes alternated from the lawyers and the magistrate to the witnesses, with an expression of clear comprehension. Apparently an English court was something new to him, but something he was extremely anxious to understand.

Chief Dean was the first witness, being called to continue his evidence, a portion of which had been taken at the previous evening. The chief had visited the laundry in question on June 20th, when he had seen on the tables about which were gathered groups of Chinamen, piles of checkers, dominoes, several dice, coins and white lead-like articles, apparently corresponding to the "chips" of occidental gamblers. He had not made any arrests on that occasion for the reason that the force at hand was not large enough to guard all the doors and capture the inmates.

Later on the accused had met him on Jasper avenue later one night, informed him that he was "running a gambling game and doing fairly well at it and generously offered to divide the spoils if the Chief would not molest him.

On July 10th, Sunday evening, last, he had again visited the laundry, this time in company with Constables Turgeon and McCallum and members of the fire brigade. A party of seven were found grouped around two tables, apparently engaged in the same kind of game he had seen in progress on the previous occasion. On the table were the implements mentioned above, together with coins, both Canadian and Chinese. The party were arrested and the articles on the tables seized. These were noted in the evidence as exhibits A and B, consisting of two boxes, one an ordinary cigar box, the other a small tin box with a partition near the end. The latter, which was apparently the bank, had been held at the table by the accused. The dominoes, dice and counters had been put into the boxes.

When the police appeared on the scene there was a rapid transformation scene, most of the players getting the money into their pockets. One heap, amounting to $60, however, the Chief had secured just as Kim Wah was reaching for it.

Cross-questioned by Mr. Wallbridge the Chief admitted that he did not know personally that the game was fan tan, and could not say whether in the game in question, the banker held any unfair advantage.

Constables McCallum and Turgeon were also examined, their evidence corroborating that of the chief. The case was adjourned until this evening to permit of more witnesses being called.

SCHEDULE ADOPTED

FOR PAYMENT OF TEACHERS

School Board Will Ask Permission To Occupy 4th Street and Adopts Schedule of Salaries

The trustee board of the Edmonton Protestant Public school district met in the secretary's office on Monday. A. Taylor in the chair, H. C. Taylor, K. A. Macleod and A. B. Cushing present.

It was decided to adopt the Dominion Radiator system of heating for the new McKay avenue school.

The resignations of Miss J. Miller, Miss E. Miller and Mr. Munro from the teaching staff of the public schools were read and adopted.

The secretary was instructed to ask the council for the privilege of occupying 30 feet on the west side of Fourth street, south of McKay avenue, with the old school buildings while the new building is in course of erection.

The following report was read from the committee on salaries, and adopted.

To the Board of Trustees, Edmonton Protestant Public School District No. 7.

Gentlemen:—Your committee on Schedule for payment of teachers, beg to report as follows:—

(1) High School.

Principal:—The committee deem it best not to fix any minimum salary, but would recommend that the maximum salary be fixed at $1600 to be reached by increase of $100 per year.

Assistants for high school:—No minimum salary to be fixed. Maximum salary $1200. Each year to be increased $50 until such maximum is reached.

(2) Public School Teachers. Principal:—Salary to start $1000 per year, increase $50 per year until a maximum of $1200 is reached. Assistant principals, $50 per year above increase of ordinary teachers. Experienced teachers: first year, $480; second year, $510; third year, $540.

Teachers of at least two years experience, $600. Increase at rate of $15 per year until a maximum of $720 is reached.

While your committee deem that it is not in the best interests of the school to hire inexperienced teachers, they thought that it would be no harm to rate such.

General. All teachers engaged before summer holidays, time to commence from January 1st previous. When engaged after summer holidays, time to count from January 1st following. Your committee would recommend that this schedule be retroactive and come into force as of January 1st, 1904.

Our present staff of teachers would then for this current year have salaries fixed as follows:—

High School. Mr. W. Rae, principal, (engaged October, 1901), $1400. G. E. Ellis, engaged May, 1903, $1000. R. H. Johnston, engaged August, 1903, $900.

Public School. W. Ramsay, principal, engaged 1899, $1200. Miss Osborne, engaged 1889, $720. Miss Barker, engaged 1893, $690. Miss Battick, engaged 1899, $675. Miss K. Chegwin, engaged 1930, $660.

Miss E. Miller, engaged August, 1900, $645. Miss McKee, engaged 1901, $645. Miss B. Chegwin, engaged 1902, $630.

Miss J. Miller, engaged 1903, $615. Miss C. Doyle, engaged May, 1903, $615.

Mr. W. A. Munro, engaged April, 1903, $655. Miss McKee, engaged August, 1903, $600.

Miss McCartney, engaged September, 1903, $600. Miss C. Graham, engaged January 1904, $600.

Miss Mahaffy, engaged January, 1904, $600. Signed on behalf of committee. H. C. TAYLOR. A. B. CUSHING.

the counties and get there his information from somebody. He had to get information from parties in and around Sweetburg, and the other towns in the counties of Macleod and Brome. Well, it is evident that Col. Smart happened to fall into the hands of certain parties who represented rather a small family compact. The fact he made was composed almost exclusively of gentlemen connected with the Conservative party. My hon. friend said a moment ago that in militia matters there should be no politics, and in this I heartily agree, but it so happens that this regiment, was to be offered almost exclusively by Conservative politicians. It is no harm to be a Conservative. It may be a mistake, but I do not count it a sin. But I submit to my hon. friends on the other side, is it not proper that whenever a regiment is organized in any part of the country, it should be offered as far as possible from both parties? I do not know how things are now, but once upon a time, when I was in the militia myself, there was a battalion organized, with which I was connected, and in organizing it, the man who was our colonel went and consulted everybody. He consulted men who could take any part in the organization, but whose advice was valuable. But in the present instance, it so happens that there is a gentleman in the eastern townships who is connected with politics and holds a position of some respectability in that part of the country. I refer to my hon. friend the Minister of Agriculture. Was his position to be considered a bar to his offering any advice? Was he to be precluded from expressing an opinion simply because he happened to be Minister of Agriculture? Had he not as much right to give advice in the matter as Col. Picot and the others about Sherbrooke, or in the counties of Macleod and Brome who happened to be consulted? Was my hon. friend, simply because he happened to be Minister of Agriculture, bound to say: "No, all wrong. You have chosen none but Conservative politicians to be offered in the regiment, but I cannot say a word about it." If we are all in agreement on this principle that voluntary associations should not be political preserves, if we all agreed that politics should be kept out of them, I think that my hon. friend the Minister of Agriculture ought to be commended for having pointed out to the general public he was making a mistake in choosing none but the men of the one stripe and so far of the other? That is all my hon. friend did. He wrote to the General Officer recommending that there were in that regiment too many of the one stripe and not sufficient of the other. He went over to the militia office and had a conference with the Minister of Militia and Colonies, Whitley and Smart. Together they discussed the personnel of the staff. My hon. friend made some representations, and it seems to me that the representations he made were in the best interests of the force and should have been accepted. As a matter of fact they were accepted at that conference, but unfortunately Lord Dundonald came to the conclusion that having signed a list of names recommended to him—a list probably of men about whom he knew nothing—that list was as sacred as the laws of the Medes and Persians and could not be interfered with—that even the Minister of Agriculture, acting for the Minister of Militia, which is not denied by Lord Dundonald—could not have a word to say, but that the list had to be accepted simply because it was signed by Lord Dundonald.

Mr. R. L. Borden.—My hon. friend is not doing Lord Dundonald justice. Sir Wilfrid Laurier.—In what way? Mr. R. L. Borden.—He never made any objection to the Minister of Militia acting for to any one acting for him. What he objected to was the Minister of Agriculture going to the officers who were organizing that regiment under him and interfering with them in the duties they were performing under his directions.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier.—I beg my hon. friend's pardon. Here is the speech of Lord Dundonald. He said, would you believe it gentlemen, I sent an order to the cabinet and that order was interfered with. Here are his very words:

A most flagrant instance of political interference has recently come before me in connection with the appointment of officers in the new eastern townships cavalry regiment, the Scottish Light Dragoons.

The commanding officers of the corps had been selected because of their apparent fitness from a military point of view. The names reached me and were sent to council and gentlemen, what do you think happened? The list having my approval—

"My approval"—

—was returned with the name of one officer struck out and initiated by the Minister of Agriculture.

And, in justice to the Minister of Agriculture it should be said that it was initiated by him acting for the Minister of Militia, as was well known by Lord Dundonald. Under these circumstances, I ask my hon. friend if I am doing any injustice to Lord Dundonald when I say that he wanted to have his recommendation to council, the last word to be said, and minister and council simply to bow and accept his recommendation?

Mr. R. L. Borden.—I say, yes, because the Prime Minister has left out of account the letter from Lieut.-Col. Smart which was before Lord Dundonald before he made these remarks, in which Lieut.-Col. Smart said that the Minister of Agriculture had interfered with him on political grounds.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier.—And at that very moment the Minister of Agriculture, who was acting for the Minister of Militia had the letter from Lieut.-Col. Smart begging him to leave off the name of Dr. Picot. Sir, we are not accustomed—I give all credit to Lord Dundonald for good motives—but we are not accustomed to be dragged in this country. Lord Dundonald, with all the respect I have for him, must learn that this is a responsible government and that when he sends a recommendation to council, it is the right, it is the right, I say, notwithstanding what anybody may say to the contrary—the minister in charge of the department, if he does not approve of the recommendation to strike out any name.

Mr. Sam Hughes.—May I ask the right hon. Prime Minister a question? Sir Wilfrid Laurier.—Yes.

Mr. Sam Hughes.—Will he or will the Minister of Agriculture or the Minister of Militia deny that this name was struck off while the Minister of Militia was present with the Minister of Agriculture, before the recommendation was sent to council. If he does, all I can say is that we can prove to the contrary.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier.—What does that prove?

Mr. Sam Hughes.—It proves that the Minister of Agriculture had interfered before.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier.—It was corrected by the Minister of Agriculture, acting for the Minister of Militia and approved by the council.

Mr. Sam Hughes.—Yes, but it was changed before that.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier.—It was not changed before that time. I do not wish to pursue this discussion further. I merely wish to indicate the course of my hon. friend (Mr. Fisher). Lord Dundonald, or whoever commands the militia in Canada will commit the greatest of mistakes if, when appointing officers to the militia in parts of the country of which he knows nothing, appointments concerning which he must take the recommendation of somebody, if he does not take advice not only from one side but from both sides of politics on these matters.

Paid the Bills Twice

The investigation continues into the civic history of Calgary. The Herald says:

At the council meeting Thursday night some old wounds will be opened and a few new ones inflicted.

The matter of the city's finances promise the most serious attention. The 22-mill rate decided upon threatens to create a howl. Chairman Cushing of the finance committee says he shaved down the estimates nearly ten thousand dollars in order to get them in even at the 25 mill rate. The city is really collecting about the same as last year when the 20 mill rate ruled. The difference is the 10 per cent. discount allowance for payment made prior to October 15.

But what promises even more serious developments is the motion that will be made by Mr. Cushing that the council proceed to collect the $180 alleged to be due from the regime of ex-Treasurer McMillan. This promises to provoke an acrimonious discussion.

Another subject of harsh criticism will be the discovery of loose cash transactions in handling city finances under the administration of ex-Treasurer McMillan, and the failure of Menzies, the Winnipeg auditor to detect some amazing discrepancies.

The Eau Claire Lumber company has $400 to the credit of the city on its books. This is the amount of a bill paid twice months ago. The company reported the fact to the finance committee two months ago. They said it was paid last year and the fact was revealed by the failure of the books to balance. A representative says he called on McMillan several times and he said he was too busy to attend to it. The company still has the money.

About the same time Mr. Cushing discovered his books credited the city with $30. Investigation revealed a bill that the city had twice paid and no record remained in the city treasurer's office of the double transaction.

Just how many other bills were paid twice or thrice under the old system is uncertain and why the treasurer's cash account did not fail to balance under such loose practices is a mystery. The Winnipeg auditor who put in a bill for $15 a day and expenses, a total of $600, failed to detect any of these discrepancies. This is another matter to be aired Thursday night.

Chairman Cushing of the finance committee, says he gave orders two months ago when these things were brought to his attention, to change the system.

It is said the former treasurer would send a check with a bill rendered for services. If the bill was receipted and returned it acted as a voucher. If not returned there was no record that it had been paid. No ledger was kept, but one has now been ordered.

Persons rendering bills must now go to the city hall and receipt them as they are not returned. This is expected to stop the leak.

The Canadian Northwest Homestead Regulations

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting 8 and 16, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age to the extent of one quarter section, of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY.—Entry may be made for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or, if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situated, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10.00 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years:

(1) At least six months' residence years.
 (2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, reside upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of the Act as to residence may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler has obtained a patent for his homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent, countersigned in the manner prescribed by this Act, and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses 2, 3, or 4, must prepare a plan of his homestead buildings and their accommodation, and have besides 30 acres sub-sistence.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the local agent, sub-agent, or Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

Information.—Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office, in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office, in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing land to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

JAMES A. SMART,

Deputy Minister of the Interior.
 N.B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands to which the regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

LOCAL

—Train on time, due at 4.30 in Strathcona.

—Strathcona defeated Agropols at football on Tuesday, score 4 to 2.

—Third street, River Lot 10, is being graded between Queens avenue and Fraser avenue.

—Pearce's boat leaves about the 25th for points down the river, taking scows of freight.

—A break occurred in the water pipes on Jasper avenue opposite the Massey Harris Co's warehouse yesterday.

—Dr. Clendennan has opened up a yard on 4th street south for the manufacture of artificial stone.

—A shipment of concrete has arrived for the Bank of Commerce building and work is being proceeded with on the block.

—There was a bad fire in the Lethbridge police barracks on Monday. Arms and a million rounds of ammunition and stores burned. The division records were also burned.

—It is reported on the street this afternoon that P. Grey is entering action against the Carpenters' Union to recover damages alleged to have been suffered by him through the action of the union.

—Alberta: Forty thousand pounds of government creamery butter were shipped yesterday from Calgary for the Yukon. This shipment of butter was made up of consignments from the different government creameries on the north line.

—The final game of the Inuit football tournament of June 22nd was played between Inuit and Bowden Saturday evening on Bowden diamond. Sam's pitched a star game for Bowden, and the home team had them beaten at every turn, winning by 11 to 8 and an innings to spare. It is needless to say the Bowden fans are delighted by the result, more particularly so because Inuit had this season already beaten nearly all the local teams, including Dunsbury, Ode, Red Deer Juniors and Blackfords.

—Calgary Herald: About a block west of the Immigration hall there is a village of tents. The men who occupy them are English and Scotch fishermen who have arrived here since the season opened and who have secured work. They board themselves, and do their own cooking and washing. They are mostly merchant seamen, laborers and are taking the right kind of getting a start in the land of their adoption. There are 11 tents in the encampment and about 35 men.

—Writing to a friend in Victoria, B. C. from Prince Albert, where he had gone to superintend the construction of a number of steamers for the Hudson's Bay Co. Alex. Watson says: "I have finished the first steamer for the Hudson's Bay Co. at Prince Albert. She was launched on June 15th and christened the Strathcona by Mrs. Carrie Hall, daughter of Mr. R. H. Hall, manager for the Hudson's Bay Co. here, formerly of Victoria. I have for Port Vermilion on the 29th to build the Prince river steamer."

—The local lacrosse team had a splendid practice on their grounds last evening, there being a large turnout of players. The team has been getting in some good work lately, and in their match with Strathcona tomorrow evening on the Edmonton grounds, will doubtless give a good account of themselves. The game will commence at seven o'clock sharp and the management desire to see a large turnout of the admirers of Canada's national game. A full practice of the team is called to take place on the old race track this evening, when the team which will uphold Edmonton's honor tomorrow evening will be chosen. Lacrosse enthusiasm which has been somewhat backward in Edmonton this year has recently revived greatly and doubtless some splendid games will yet be played before the close of the season. The next tomorrow night will be a good one.

LACROSSE GAME

Strathcona and Edmonton meet on the Hudson's Bay grounds to-morrow night for the first lacrosse match to be played in either town this season. Both teams include many old players and an interesting game is expected. The match begins at 6.30 p.m.

FAN TAN AS A SOCIAL PASTIME

Though the Celestial who introduced fan tan to Edmonton is appearing daily before the police magistrate to demonstrate his innocence of the accusation of conducting a gaming house, the evidences are not wanting that neither the newness of the game nor the fate of its importer will militate its extension beyond the ranks of the race from the Orient or prevent it aspiring to the honored place of a social pastime.

It is given on fairly good authority that last evening the game was being played within the walls of the town hall and on the very desk of the police magistrate. The participants included the junior member of a leading law firm in the city, two of the city police force and two members of the fire brigade, under the direction of two gentlemen who had played the game elsewhere. Eye witnesses testify to the presence of all the accoutrements of the game on the table, even to the chips and the bank.

What the outcome of the bout was no one has divulged, but among those who have participated as yet the idea seems unanimous that the game is too intricate for the western mind to grasp readily and the chances of it becoming a social favorite are limited.

STRATHCONA WON THE MEDALS

The baseball match for the medals presented by the Orangemen, and which was interrupted by rain on Tuesday evening was played on the Strathcona grounds last evening, the Strathcona boys keeping them by a score of 15 to 9 in a seven innings slugging match.

The line up of the teams follows:

Strathcona	Catcher	Till
Dobson	Pitcher	Magill
Stokes	First Base	Parney
Hay	Second Base	Milne
Kinnear	Third Base	Maloney
Greenway	Shortstop	Deaton
Dobson	Right Field	Heta
Magill	Centre Field	Archibald
Blair

The score by innings was:
Edmonton—0 0 2 0 7 0 6—9.
Strathcona—2 2 2 0 5 2 2—15.
W. Jackson refereed the game.
